

As Adopted by the Board on October 23, 2018

As Amended by the Board on October 25, 2021, effective November 1, 2021

LINDE PLC

CHARTER OF THE HUMAN CAPITAL COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Human Capital Committee (the “Human Capital Committee”) is appointed by the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Linde plc (the “Company”). This charter of the Human Capital Committee of the Board (the “Human Capital Committee Charter”) sets forth the responsibilities, duties and authorities of the Human Capital Committee.

Composition

The Human Capital Committee shall be comprised solely of independent directors according to independence standards established by the Board upon the recommendation of the Nomination & Governance Committee consistent with applicable statutes, regulations and the rules and listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”). Additionally, at least two members of the Human Capital Committee also shall qualify as 'non-employee' directors within the meaning of Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”).

The members of the Human Capital Committee shall serve until such member’s successor is duly appointed and qualified or until such member’s resignation or removal. Notwithstanding the foregoing membership requirements, no action of the Human Capital Committee will be invalid by reason of any such requirement not being met at the time such action is taken.

Procedures

The Human Capital Committee shall meet from time to time during the year, as needed to carry out the Human Capital Committee’s responsibilities under this Human Capital Committee Charter. The Chairman of the Human Capital Committee shall have the authority to call a special meeting of the Human Capital Committee whenever s/he deems such meeting necessary or desirable.

All meetings of the Human Capital Committee will be held pursuant to the constitution of the Company (the “Constitution”) with regard to notice and waiver thereof, and written minutes of each meeting will be duly filed in the Company records.

If the Chairman of the Human Capital Committee is not able to attend any Human Capital Committee meeting in person, then the Human Capital Committee shall designate another Human Capital Committee member who is able to attend such Human Capital Committee meeting in person to chair such Human Capital Committee meeting. The Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”) and other members of management may attend meetings of the Human Capital Committee at the invitation of the Human Capital Committee.

Reports of meetings of the Human Capital Committee shall be made by the Chairman of the Human Capital Committee to the Board at its next regularly scheduled Board meeting following the Human Capital Committee meeting and shall be accompanied by any recommendations to the Board approved by the Human Capital Committee.

Except as required pursuant to the Constitution of the Company or any other policy of the Board, a majority of the members of the Human Capital Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Except as required pursuant to the Constitution of the Company or any other policy of the Board, the vote of a majority of the Human Capital Committee members present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Human Capital Committee.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Human Capital Committee Charter, in the event of a tie vote with respect to any resolution of the Human Capital Committee, the Chairman of the Human Capital Committee shall not have a casting or deciding vote.

The Human Capital Committee shall have the authority to designate, and delegate duties to, such standing and ad-hoc sub-committees as it deems necessary or desirable, subject to the Constitution of the Company, applicable laws and rules of the NYSE.

Responsibilities

In discharging its responsibilities, the Human Capital Committee shall:

1. review and approve corporate goals and objectives relevant to the CEO's compensation, evaluate the CEO's performance in light of those goals and objectives and, either as a committee or together with the other non-management directors of the Board, determine and approve the CEO's compensation.
2. review and approve the compensation of all other executive officers of the Company, and make recommendations to the Board with respect to any other incentive or equity based plans, in each case that are subject to Board approval;
3. evaluate the performance of all other executive officers based upon, among other things, the CEO's evaluation of such persons' performance;
4. review and approve the executive compensation philosophy of the Company and its subsidiaries (together, the "Group");
5. review and make recommendations to the Board with respect to the adoption, amendment and termination of the Company's management incentive compensation and equity-compensation plans, oversee their administration and discharge any duties imposed on the Human Capital Committee by any of those plans;
6. review and discuss, at least annually, incentive compensation policies and practices applicable to all employees generally, to confirm that incentive compensation programs do not encourage risk taking that could be reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company;

7. authorize the granting of variable compensation and equity awards to other employees and delegate to the CEO, to the extent the Human Capital Committee deems appropriate, the authority to allocate such awards among employees other than the CEO and other executive officers, subject to the limitations set forth in the applicable plans pursuant to which such compensation or awards are to be granted;
8. with the counsel of the Chairman of the Board, review management's long-range planning for executive development and succession and develop a succession plan for the CEO and other executive officers;
9. review and approve the material terms of employment and retention agreements (including offer letters), severance arrangements, change in control agreements and any special supplemental benefits for executive officers;
10. review the compensation discussion and analysis prepared by management for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement and furnish an accompanying report certifying the Human Capital Committee's review of the compensation discussion and analysis and approval for publication in the proxy statement, in accordance with applicable rules and regulations, and review and approve, prior to publication, the executive compensation sections of the proxy statement;
11. establish stock ownership guidelines for the CEO and other executive officers, and monitor compliance therewith;
12. review at least annually transactions by the CEO and other executive officers of the Company in the Company's stock and approve such transactions to the extent required by applicable rules for their exemption from short-swing profit liability under Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act;
13. review periodically the Group's diversity policies and objectives, and programs to achieve those objectives;
14. review periodically the Group's programs, policies and results related to employee engagement and development;
15. review periodically the Group's programs, policies and results related to employee-driven community engagement and global charitable giving funded by employee donations of money and volunteerism;
16. review periodically the Group's policies and performance relating to the safety of its employees and contractors in areas such as process, behavioral, distribution, and operational safety;
17. perform other review functions relating to management compensation and human resources policies as the Human Capital Committee deems appropriate;
18. conduct an evaluation of the Human Capital Committee's performance and charter at least annually, and recommend to the Board such Human Capital Committee Charter changes as the Human Capital Committee deems appropriate; and

19. perform any other duties and responsibilities as may be assigned to the Human Capital Committee, from time to time, by the Board.

Resources and Authority

The Human Capital Committee shall have the resources, funding and authority appropriate to discharge its duties and responsibilities, including the authority to select, retain, terminate and approve the fees and other retention terms of any compensation consultants, outside legal counsel or other advisors to the Human Capital Committee (each, an “Advisor”), as it deems appropriate, without seeking approval of the Board or management. The Human Capital Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, and oversight of the work of any Advisor it retains. To the extent required by NYSE rules, the Human Capital Committee may select or receive advice from an Advisor only after taking into consideration all factors relevant to the Advisor’s independence from management, including the factors set forth in the NYSE rules. Although the Human Capital Committee is required to consider these factors, it is free to select or receive advice from an Advisor that is not independent.